Mike Sillett :: Atkins

Durrat Al Bahrain. A multi-island development on the south east coast of Bahrain

A major multi-discipline project developed from a client vision for a population of 30,000. This contribution and co-operation of architects, engineers and technical specialists was critical to the success of the project.

Atkins is the largest multi discipline consultancy in Europe, with over 16,000 employees, and provides a complete range of consultancy services in the UK and internationally.
