PUBLIC LECTURE AT THE UNIVERSITY OF GREENWICH

Tue 10 March 2009 - 5.30pm

RESCHEDULED FROM 3rd FEBRUARY TO 10th MARCH DUE TO ADVERSE WEATHER CONDITIONS

Sibylle Heil
IS IT BURNING YET?
ARCHITECTURE IN THE WORK OF J.G. BALLARD

This lecture will explore the use of buildings as an integral part of the narrative within Ballard's literary output. Examples of existing structures within Greater London will be given and the lecture will show how they perform as vital props in Ballard's dystopian vision of violence and social breakdown.

Speaker: Sibylle Heil is a Part Time Lecturer at Greenwich University School of Architecture and Construction, a practising artist and proprietor of a building restoration company, based in London.
